IMPORTANT

Please read and follow these instructions carefully to ensure that your codicil is not invalid in any way.

Complete the form in full and ensure that you sign it in the presence of two independent, adult witnesses. The following people cannot witness your codicil:

- Your executor
- Your executor's spouse
- A beneficiary of your Will
- A beneficiary's spouse

Make sure both witnesses complete and sign their respective sections of the form.

Keep this codicil in a safe place with, but not attached to, your current Will.

Scan or make copies of this codicil and your Will, and give them (in a sealed envelope if you prefer) to your executor or a trusted friend. Indicate with a note where the originals can be found. Keeping your Will and the codicil together will minimise the potential for confusion later.

If you are worried or confused, we recommend that you seek professional advice from a solicitor with experience in Wills and probate. We also advise you to seek legal advice if this codicil will make substantial changes to your Will, for example leaving a gift of residue.

If you have any questions or need help completing this form, you can contact us on 01708 734366, or email info@lennoxccf.org.uk. All enquiries will be treated in confidence. Please note that Lennox Children's Cancer Fund and its employees are not qualified to give legal advice, and will therefore not be liable for the content of, or any changes, to your Will or codicils.
